

DENNIS FITZGERALD
DJF BUILDERS

Working for a family friend in remodeling quickly grew into more substantial subcontracting work for Dennis Fitzgerald, where he learned what it took to succeed in the construction world. “It did not take long to realize I wanted to build custom homes,” says Fitzgerald. His company, DJF Builders “makes it a priority to be educated on the market trends and implement them.” This approach eschews the standard package, placing DJF Builders among this new breed of builders. “DJF Builders takes pride in our motto “homes of distinction” for a reason,” Fitzgerald says. “I feel like there are so many added touches to our homes that make them recognizable but the most important is our attention to detail. Not only in the building of the home itself but also to our buyers, subcontractors and agents. With mutual goals in sight we then build a quality home with distinction. I’m proud of every home we build and feel that people can recognize a DJF home just by the detail,” says Fitzgerald.

And Fitzgerald looks forward to building distinctive quality homes for many years to come. His company continues to keep a positive attitude and approach during these challenging market times. “This outlook ensures that we stay focused on what is important: building a home that is backed with our commitment for quality and customer service,” says Fitzgerald. “We believe the Raleigh area will continue to prevail throughout the market changes. The slow-down in the market has helped us to control growth at a pace that will ensure future success.” Fitzgerald also credits his success to his refusal to compromise his standards, no matter how quickly the company has grown or how the market has changed. “DJF’s striving for customer satisfaction has ensured our place at the top of the building industry,” Fitzgerald says. “Staying focused on this will guarantee our success for the future.”

In his personal life, his children come first. “I enjoy spending time with them and watching them grow up,” says Fitzgerald. “After that, I am an outdoors man who loves to fish, hunt, golf, and enjoy the company of my friends.”
